Memorandum. I Henry Earl of Pembroke, and Montgomery &c. do the day, and the Year underwritten, make, publish, and declare this, my last Will, and Testament, in manner, and form following, that is to say, in the first place I give, and devise unto my Mother, the Countess Dowager of Pembroke &c. one hundred pounds, and to my Mother's Husband Thomas Bernard Esq. one annuity of one hundred pounds, a year during his life. Also I give, and devise unto my Dear, and loving Wife Elizabeth Countess of Pembroke, and Montgomery, five thousand pounds, lawfull money of Great Britain; also I give to my said Wife my Equipages, and Coach Horses, desiring, that the latter, as they grow unfit for service, may be turned out to grass for the rest of their lives, and also I give unto my said Wife Elizabeth Countess of Pembroke, and Montgomery &c. the use of all, and singular my plate, till my Son is twenty five Years of Age, or is married. I give the same at her decease, in case of my Sons decease also, to the person, who shall be Earl of Pembroke, and Montgomery &c. his heirs, and Assigns for ever. Also I give to Cornet Floyd, now of General Elliott's Regiment of Light Dragoons one hundred pounds in money, and one hundred pounds a year, during his life, and I recommend him to all my Friends's protection, and good services. Also I give to the Treasurer for the time being of the Marine Society, for the use of the said society, sixty pounds. Also I give to the poor of Wilton one hundred, and fifty pounds. Also I give to the poor of Salisbury one hundred pounds, to be distributed amongst them, as my Executors shall think fit. Also I give to Mr. Angelo twenty pounds a year, during his life. I desire that all my Horses, Mares, Fillies, Colts, Geldings, Dogs, and Creatures whatsoever, may be kept happy as long as they live, and I charge all my Estates, of all kinds whatsoever, both real, and personal, that I have power to charge with the same, accordingly. I mean all Animals whatsoever, which belong to me at the time of my decease, in any place, or in any Country, at home, or abroad, and that, if any are abroad any where, they shall be immediately sent for home to England, and taken care of, as above mentioned. Also I give to Mr. Robert Herbert, Son of my deceased Uncle General William Herbert two hundred pounds in Money, and one hundred pounds per annum during his life; and to Miss Herbert, Daughter of my said deceased Uncle General William Herbert, fifty pounds a year during her life, and to her Brother Charles I give the sum of one hundred pounds. I recommend the said Mr. Robert Herbert, to one of the best livings in the gift of the Earl of Pembroke, and Montgomery &c. And Mr. Nevil my Cousin to another, in case they should both, or either of them, go into Orders. Also I give to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, for the time being, one hundred pounds, for the use of that Hospital, and to the Treasurer of Chelsea Hospital for the time being, seventy pounds, for the use of that Hospital, to the Treasurer of the Hospital commonly called the Foundling Hospital, for the time being, fifty pounds for the use of that Hospital. To the Treasurer of St. George's Hospital, for the time being, fifty pounds for the use of that Hospital; to the Treasurer of the Small pox, and Inoculation Hospital, for the time being, fifty pounds, for the use of that Hospital, to the Treasurer of the Lock Hospital for the time being, fifty pounds for the use of that Hospital, and to the London Hospital the same. Also I give to Anthony Sanger Esq. one thousand pounds, to Mr. Des Fleurs one hundred pounds; Also I give to the Child of Antonio Picchi of Florence, to whom I stood Godfather, one annuity, or yearly sum, of six pounds of lawfull Money of Great Britain, for, and during the term of his natural life, clear of all taxes and deductions whatsoever. I give to the Child of Mr. Angelo, to whom I stood Godfather one annuity of twenty pounds of lawfull Money of Great Britain for, and during the term of his natural life, clear of all taxes, and deductions whatsoever, commencing from the time of his Father's death only. I give to Mr. Bourgelat Esq. in France, one hundred pounds. Also I give to Mr. Robert Mathison three hundred pounds and to Mr. Seward of Wilton, two hundred pounds. Also I give to Maximilian Cajet Esq^r: the Owl at Wilton, and the Bon, and Arrows, and also the sum of one hundred pounds. To Mr. Binet twenty pounds a year during his life. Also I give to Mr. Gore of Salisbury one hundred pounds. Also I give to Edward Baker Esq^r: of Bullbridge one hundred pounds. Also I give to Lord Stopford all my guns, which have been commonly used for sporting. I desire, that such of my Stone Horses, as I leave, may cover graze for the benefit of the Country, and for such Gentlemen, as may chuse to send Mares to them, and that this may be constantly advertised yearly as long, as any such horses shall live. Also I give to Giuseppe Lodovico Fidler ten pounds a year during his life. I give to Mr. John Little fifty pounds. Also I give to Louis Brill Cook twelve pounds. Also I give to William Wauthier my Valet de chambre twelve pounds a year during his life. And I also give him all my cloaths and wearing apparel whatever I give to James Kennedy twelve pounds per annum during his life. Also I give to Dalton ten pounds a year during his life I give to Wyatt my Gardener at Wilton ten pounds a year during his life. I desire all my Manuscripts on Horsemanship may be given to Lord Stopford, and I direct, that to whom any bags, or parcels &c: are directed, the same shall be delivered to such persons unopened, and I desire, that all my other papers, not on business, or consequence, may be immediately burnt. I give to all my Servants of whatsoever capacity, sea, or station, workmen, Labourers &c: both in Town, and Country, at home, abroad, or elsewhere, and who shall be in my service at the time of my decease, and not herein mentioned particularly, the sum of two pounds a year each during their respective lives. Also I give to my grooms Ignace the Spaniard, Joseph Dimel the German, and Henry Coward eight pounds a year to each of them during their respective lives. If Ignace should die before a Daughter of his, to whom I stood Godfather, I give to her after her Father's decease the same annuity of eight pounds a year during her life. Also I give to the Reverend Mr. Thomas Hill, now at Utrecht with Cornet Lloyd, fifty pounds a year, till such time, as there shall be some whatever vacant living in the gift of the Earl of Pembroke offered him or till such time as the Earl of Pembroke shall procure him any other living whatever of the yearly of one hundred pounds per annum, and I strongly recommend Cornet Lloyd to his care, and goodness. I give to Miss Elizabeth Catharina Hunter three thousand pounds, and I recommend to her in the strongest manner possible the care of the Education of any Child, or Children, of which she may be brought to bed within ten months after the date of this will. If a boy, or boys in the same way, as I do in this will that of my Son to my Wife.

I leave Miss Hunter the sole Guardian of her own said Child, or Children, of which she may be brought to bed within the above-mentioned time, and beg in case of her decease, that she will appoint some other, or others, as she shall think fit. I dare say she will approve of Lord Stopford, and that he, out of friendship for me, would willingly undertake it. Also I give to Captain Riddell of the Hunter Privateer one hundred pounds. The following lines marked 22 before them is a copy of a bond given by me to Miss Hunter

I Henry Earl of Pembroke and Montgomery, to hereby oblige myself, Miss Elizabeth Catharina Hunter having made void a bond of twenty thousand pounds in her favor, to which Gibbs Cransford, and Thomas Coult's Esq. were witnesses in the month of February this year, one thousand, seven hundred, and sixty two, and on condition, that the said bond stands void, and null, and not else, to pay yearly to the said Miss Elizabeth Catharina Hunter for her life, the sum of eight hundred pounds per annum, lawfull money of Great Britain, clear of all taxes, and deductions whatsoever, and I also oblige myself, on the above said conditions, and not else, to pay to any Child, or Children she may be brought to bed of, within twelve months after the date of this, for it's, or their lives, the yearly sum of two hundred pounds per annum, clear of all taxes, and deductions whatsoever, from the time of it's, or their birth, and moreover to give to the said Child or Children, at the age of sixteen years old, the sum of three thousand pounds, lawfull money of Great Britain, clear of all taxes, and deductions whatsoever to be then paid into the hands of Miss Hunter, or into those of the Child's, or Children's Guardian's, for the sole use of the said Child, or Children, and accordingly I charge all my Estates both real, and personal, that I have power to charge with the same, with the payment of this obligation, in witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand, and seal at Utrecht this fiftenth day of April, one thousand, seven hundred, and sixty two.

"Signed, Sealed, and delivered, by the said Henry Earl of Pembroke, and Montgomery, in presence of us, who have at his request, subscribed our names as Witnesses hereto, in presence of the said Henry Earl of Pembroke, and Montgomery, and of each other —

And I make the performance of the above Bond, on the conditions mentioned in it, part of my Will, in case it should not otherwise stand good, but not else. And all the rest, and residue of my Estate, not herein disposed of, I give, and bequeath the same unto my Son George Herbert, his Executors, and Administrators. All the pecuniary legacies herein mentioned to be lawfull money of Great Britain, and to be paid within twelve months after my decease, in case the same should be demanded. The Annuities to be also paid in lawfull money of Great Britain, and as ordered in this will, and I charge all my Estates both real, and personal, that I have power to charge with the same, with the payment of all the herein mentioned legacies, and annuities, and I desire my Executors herein after named, may as soon as conveniently may be, after my decease give notice to all the Legates, and Annuitants herein named of so much of this my Will, as as relates to each Legatee, and Annuitant. I make my Wife sole Guardian of my Son, and of every thing whatsoever belonging to him at my Decease, and recommend to her concerning him, as follows. That his Education may be first a French School, next at a French School, next abroad, and never at an English University, that he may be taught Italian, and German, and follow the Exercises of Riding, Fencing, and Dancing. That he may be particularly instructed in History, and Mathematics, and a little Knowledge of the Law. That he may not be an idle Gentleman, but have some occupation, such, as his genius may prompt him to, and he may chuse. Whatsoever his Vocation may be, let him begin early to engage in it, but not be too soon abandoned, and left quite to himself, nor too much constrained. I desire my house at White Hall may be immediately left for one, and twenty years, counting from the date of this Will, and that the money it brings in may be employed, as my Executors shall think fit, for the benefit of my Son George, and after his death, I leave the said House in perpetuity to whosoever shall be Earl of Pembroke or his Wife, in case of any unforeseen accident to herself, immediately to name proper Guardians for my Son, as she shall think fit. And I do hereby nominate, constitute, and appoint my Wife, the Duke of Marlborough, the Right Honorable Henry Bilson Legge, the Honorable Robert Herbert, and Anthony Lawyer Esq^r, joint Executors of this my Will, and I leave them two hundred pounds each, and hereby I do revoke, and make void all former, and other wills, by me at any time heretofore made, declaring this only to be my last Will, and Testament, in witness whereof I, the said Henry Earl of Pembroke, and Montgomery Esq^r: the Testator, have, to this my last Will, and Testament, contained in this, and the two foregoing sheets of paper, set my hand, and seal to each sheet, the seventeenth day of May one thousand, seven hundred, and sixty two, at White

signed, sealed, Published, and Declared, by the said Testator, Henry Earl of Pembroke, and Montgomery Esq^r: as, and for, his last Will, and Testament, in the presence of us, who have, at his request, subscribed our names, as Witnesses hereto, in the presence of the said Testator, and of each other.
