

Gros 10th 16. Regem.

Appeared before me Adrianus Hoeremans Notary of the High Court of Amsterdam, residing at Amsterdam, and by the venerable Magistrates of the same City admitted to the exercise of the said office, in presence of the witnesses underwritten. The Honorable Thomas Adrianus Roddeus Doctor in Law dwelling in this City, known to me Notary, who considering the frailty of human life, and having certain goods, Chattels and Credits in England, did desire to have made, ordained, constituted and appointed, as he doth make ordain constitute and appoint by these Presents his dear wife, Madam Wilhelmina Lucia van Alphen, his Executor, giving and granting unto her all such power and authority as to an Executor and Administrator can or may be given, for immediately after his Decease to ask and take Letters of Administration for all the Goods, Chattels and Credits, which he after his Decease shall or may have in England, standing in his own name separately or jointly with any Person and persons whatsoever, to be given and granted by the Judges of the prerogative Court of Canterbury or by their lawfull Surrogates, or by any other Competent Ecclesiastical Judge whosoever, that they the said Marianne Wilhelmina Lucia van Alphen may do with to do with, sell assign and transfer, all his said Goods, Chattels and Credits, and he doth likewise make, make constitute and appoint his said Excutrix, for after having obtained the said Letters of Administration, to sell assign and transfer for any Consideration Sum or Sums whatsoever, unto himself, or any other person or persons whosoever, all and every the said Goods, Chattels and Credits or any part or share thereof, as also to receive the Consideration money thereof, and to sign, seal and deliver good and sufficient acquitances and Discharges for the same, with power unto her to substitute one or more Attorneys in her stead and place, and again at her pleasure to revoke the same, All the afore said he Appealer Did declare to be his Last will, In Witness whereof the afore said Honourable Thomas Adrian
